

Vacation Time Has Arrived

NOW one's thoughts are turning to vacation days, a hike to lakes or woods to escape the terrific heat. Let us supply you with your suit cases and traveling bags—Smart suit cases, well made and durable $1 to $10 and a fine line to select from. Traveling bags in vast array $2.50 to $20.00. You'll find every one a great bargain at the price.

MACKEN & SMITH

JOHNSTON MOWERS

For easy cutting, durability, the Johnston beats them all. Come in and see.

HABERMAN HARDWARE CO.
Implements & Windmills
N. MAIN ST.

SOCIETY and CLUBS

A jolly crowd of young people spent a merry day picnicking yesterday at the grounds of the Marion people. Arriving at the noon hour they spread a tempting dinner on the lawn around which gathered twenty-six to enjoy the feast. After an afternoon spent sociably the party went to Oedington where they obtained an early supper.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Copeland and Miss Ruth Bogardus of Kenton, the guest of Miss Hedra; Messrs. Miss Esther Funk of Findlay, the guest of Miss Frances Frye; Miss Mildred Harold of Wooster, the guest of Miss Helen Houghton; Misses Ruth McKinnis, Frances Frye, Helena Mouser, Janet Longdon, Helen Houghton, Beulah Spencer, Louise Burgess, Freda Rhodes and Messrs. Wilfred Schaffner, Rodney Hume, George Foye, Ben Grilla, Carl Holly, Leo Fisher, Frank Foster, Thomas McMurray, John Abbott, Fred Taylor, and Arthur King.

About forty members of the Christian family gathered at the home of Mrs. J. E. Christian on Farming street yesterday. The reunion was thoroughly enjoyable with music and various diversions and at the close of the afternoon a picnic supper featured the affair pleasantly.

Misses Catherine and Emma Doe entertained about twenty of their relatives yesterday at their home on Farming street. The reunion was thoroughly enjoyable with music and various diversions and at the close of the afternoon a picnic supper featured the affair pleasantly.

Miss Elizabeth Steinits entertained a number of her friends last evening at a slumbering party at her home on Bellevue avenue. This morning the hosts presided at a course breakfast of pretty appointments.

Our Bigger Shop We're remodeling our shop around the corner—it will be bigger and better than ever—a trial will convince you that here is to be had the best shave in town. Barney & Ray Rear K. entrance South Prospect St.

Quality Fountain Service

at CRAFT'S

Always has been Sanitary.

Our Saturday and Sunday Menu will include Vanilla, Chocolate and Strawberry CREAM from fresh Fruit, Pineapple Ice.

All orders will receive prompt attention.

CRAFT'S QUALITY DRUG STORE

Phone 196, Marion Hotel Bldg. 133 E. Center.

A company composed of Miss Loretta Fingerhut of Kenton, Miss Ethel Cook of Marion, Mr. Jesse Albright of Findlay and Mr. Paul Keller of this city enjoyed an automobile trip yesterday. The party left here in the morning visiting Sandusky City and other places. They returned last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stillinger, Miss Grace Kelly and Mr. Lawrence Hess returned this morning from a house party at Corners grove cottage. They joined a party there Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hindeman, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Curtis, Miss Aurel Gilmore and Mr. Strumb of this city enjoyed a day's outing at Corners grove cottage yesterday. The various amusements of the place afforded pleasant diversion and delicious picnic lunches featured the day.

Scotfield's grove was the scene of a jolly picnic party yesterday afternoon. The young people, spent the late afternoon conversing in the shade of the cool trees and at five a delicious supper was spread on the lawn. Later Miss Elizabeth Hopkins invited all to the Scotfield home where the evening was spent sociably.

Those present were: Misses Elizabeth Hopkins, Elsie Ballentine, Hazel Cooper, Marguerite Yake, Florence Hoffman, Joan Watkins and Misses Kathleen Alexander Sullivan, Clifford Gillette, Clifford Schoenlaub and Earl Shultz of Cleveland.

Misses Charlene Phelps, Florence Ramey and Messrs. Harry Gillett and Anson Pickrel picnicked yesterday at the Whetstone river.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schweinfurth entertained the members of their bridge club yesterday afternoon and evening at the Cheney home on Mt. Vernon avenue. Following the picnic supper which was served on the lawn, Japanese lanterns were lighted and an enjoyable evening was spent in the cool out of doors.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stoll, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hower, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Owen, Misses Hazel Kling, Mary Frye, Mildred Chittell, Hope and Ruth Fisher and Messrs. Harry Mautz, David Evans and Eugene Godden.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kinsler entertained yesterday at their home on Cherry street. At the pretty appointed table at which dinner was served at the noon hour, covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. M. Romoser and children of LaRue, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cowen, Misses Ruth and Irma Kinsler and the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Allen, Mrs. Mary Wetmore and Mr. Howard Wetmore complimented their house guests who are Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Eggert and son, Thomas of Norwalk, Ohio, and Miss Agnes Timlinson of Perry, New York, when they invited a few relatives and neighbors to their home on Delaware avenue yesterday afternoon. The hours were spent on the pretty vine porch and at 5 o'clock a picnic supper was spread on the lawn. Guests from a distance beside the honor guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Halcomb of Columbus, who are guests at the Poole home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Taylor are entertaining about fifteen of their friends at a house party at their home in Sidney. Among the guests are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Eichel of this city, Mrs. Victor Dombach and her house guest, Miss Anna E. Morrey, of Centerville, were also guests at the Taylor home until Monday evening when they returned to the home of the former on East Center street.

The Taylor home is among the most beautiful and spacious of Sidney and the parties given by the host and hostess are most delightful. At this time Mr. Fred Search, the noted cellist, was one of the most interesting of the house guests.

Mrs. J. Harris entertained at a family reunion yesterday at her home on Short street to celebrate the birthday anniversaries of her brother, Mr. Charles Petry, of Nevada, and her uncle, Mr. David Petry, of Bucyrus. Mrs. Harris' home was prettily decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting and cut flowers. Intimate family conversation marked the day as a delightful one and an elegant lunch and dinner were served by the hostess.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stewart of Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. David Petry of Bucyrus, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McHenry of Bucyrus, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Petry of Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. George King will entertain at a garden party next Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock for their son, Ray, at Elwood. A large number of invitations have been issued.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Linn entertained a number of their relatives yesterday at their beautiful country home three miles north of town. The guests decorated the day chatting on the lawn and at noon an elegant dinner was served.

Guests from out of town were: Mrs. T. W. Grosse of Elyria, Mrs. Pfeiffer and daughters, Ella and Hattie, of Chillicothe.

Mrs. Grosse will return to her home this evening. For the past few days she has been a guest at the Mannet home on North Main street and at the Linn home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heinz entertained at their Pearl street home yesterday. Misses Inez and Anna Marie Rice and Miss Bell, all of Caledonia.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White accompanied by Miss Marion Burgess returned to their home in Cambridge after spending a few days with Marion relatives.

Robert May of Columbus was a Marion visitor yesterday.

Miss Ethel Finley of Boston, came to Marion Wednesday morning, to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Finley, of Vine street, during the summer months.

Mr. J. Carbaugh was a business visitor in Bellefontaine Wednesday.

Mrs. Stephen Seiderfeld, Mrs. J. C. Wadley and Mrs. Taylor Blow enjoyed a days outing at Cedar Point, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elliott left this morning for Pleasant Hill, where they will spend two weeks at the guests of friends.

L. C. Wogan spent Tuesday in Marietta.

PRETTY SASH OF SOFT SATIN RIBBON

New York, July 1.—This sash, with the bow very high, in a perpendicular line, is of soft satin ribbon. These high bowed sashes are called geisha sashes. Japanese women tie their sashes so, and the bow has very various significances, according to the manner in which it is adjusted. This bow is clamped by a jeweled ornament instead of being tied. The cap is one of the dainty lace affairs that are so smart for afternoon and evening wear.

Mr. Joseph Pohlman spent Tuesday in Columbus.

Miss Nancy Lawla was a visitor in Columbus Wednesday.

J. W. Creenan spent Tuesday in Columbus.

William Virden has returned to Lisbon, Ohio, after spending several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virden, on St. James street.

Miss Laura Campbell spent Tuesday with Gallion friends.

Misses Edith Ochs and Margaret Worley were entertained by Bucyrus friends yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips and Miss Gertrude Craig are spending a week at Lewistown reservoir, near Bellefontaine.

Lloyd Courtney, of Findlay, is in Marion visiting his brother, Edward Courtney.

Miss Grace McBride will arrive this evening from Omaha, Nebraska, to visit her cousin, Miss Eloise Edwards, at her home on East Church street.

Misses Lena and Florence Hay, of Olney avenue, were guests of Columbus friends over the fourth.

Charles Mouser and Patrick English spent Tuesday at Lewistown reservoir near Bellefontaine.

Misses Mabel O'Brien and Edith Rumor have returned to their homes in this city after spending a few days at Toledo.

Mrs. J. H. O'Brien has returned to her home on Olney avenue after a week's visit in Lakue.

Miss Eva Walker is spending a few days with her parents at Harper.

Miss Jennie Collier is spending a week with her parents in Springfield.

Ed Powers and Harley Lyons have returned from their ranch in Canada in the valley of the Saskatchewan. They will remain three weeks here.

Miss Pauline Cahill, of Marion, spent the fourth in Columbus.

Edward Welch and Roy Traverser are spending a few days with friends at Prospect, London and Columbus.

Mrs. Harris' home was prettily decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting and cut flowers. Intimate family conversation marked the day as a delightful one and an elegant lunch and dinner were served by the hostess.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stewart of Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. David Petry of Bucyrus, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McHenry of Bucyrus, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Petry of Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. George King will entertain at a garden party next Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock for their son, Ray, at Elwood. A large number of invitations have been issued.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Linn entertained a number of their relatives yesterday at their beautiful country home three miles north of town. The guests decorated the day chatting on the lawn and at noon an elegant dinner was served.

Guests from out of town were: Mrs. T. W. Grosse of Elyria, Mrs. Pfeiffer and daughters, Ella and Hattie, of Chillicothe.

Mrs. Grosse will return to her home this evening. For the past few days she has been a guest at the Mannet home on North Main street and at the Linn home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heinz entertained at their Pearl street home yesterday. Misses Inez and Anna Marie Rice and Miss Bell, all of Caledonia.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White accompanied by Miss Marion Burgess returned to their home in Cambridge after spending a few days with Marion relatives.

Robert May of Columbus was a Marion visitor yesterday.

Miss Ethel Finley of Boston, came to Marion Wednesday morning, to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Finley, of Vine street, during the summer months.

Mr. J. Carbaugh was a business visitor in Bellefontaine Wednesday.

Mrs. Stephen Seiderfeld, Mrs. J. C. Wadley and Mrs. Taylor Blow enjoyed a days outing at Cedar Point, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elliott left this morning for Pleasant Hill, where they will spend two weeks at the guests of friends.

L. C. Wogan spent Tuesday in Marietta.

PRETTY SASH OF SOFT SATIN RIBBON

New York, July 1.—This sash, with the bow very high, in a perpendicular line, is of soft satin ribbon. These high bowed sashes are called geisha sashes. Japanese women tie their sashes so, and the bow has very various significances, according to the manner in which it is adjusted. This bow is clamped by a jeweled ornament instead of being tied. The cap is one of the dainty lace affairs that are so smart for afternoon and evening wear.

Mr. Joseph Pohlman spent Tuesday in Columbus.

Miss Nancy Lawla was a visitor in Columbus Wednesday.

J. W. Creenan spent Tuesday in Columbus.

William Virden has returned to Lisbon, Ohio, after spending several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virden, on St. James street.

Miss Laura Campbell spent Tuesday with Gallion friends.

Misses Edith Ochs and Margaret Worley were entertained by Bucyrus friends yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips and Miss Gertrude Craig are spending a week at Lewistown reservoir, near Bellefontaine.

Lloyd Courtney, of Findlay, is in Marion visiting his brother, Edward Courtney.

Miss Grace McBride will arrive this evening from Omaha, Nebraska, to visit her cousin, Miss Eloise Edwards, at her home on East Church street.

Misses Lena and Florence Hay, of Olney avenue, were guests of Columbus friends over the fourth.

Charles Mouser and Patrick English spent Tuesday at Lewistown reservoir near Bellefontaine.

Misses Mabel O'Brien and Edith Rumor have returned to their homes in this city after spending a few days at Toledo.

Mrs. J. H. O'Brien has returned to her home on Olney avenue after a week's visit in Lakue.

Miss Jennie Collier is spending a week with her parents in Springfield.

Ed Powers and Harley Lyons have returned from their ranch in Canada in the valley of the Saskatchewan. They will remain three weeks here.

Miss Pauline Cahill, of Marion, spent the fourth in Columbus.

Edward Welch and Roy Traverser are spending a few days with friends at Prospect, London and Columbus.

Mrs. Harris' home was prettily decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting and cut flowers. Intimate family conversation marked the day as a delightful one and an elegant lunch and dinner were served by the hostess.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stewart of Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. David Petry of Bucyrus, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McHenry of Bucyrus, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Petry of Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. George King will entertain at a garden party next Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock for their son, Ray, at Elwood. A large number of invitations have been issued.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Linn entertained a number of their relatives yesterday at their beautiful country home three miles north of town. The guests decorated the day chatting on the lawn and at noon an elegant dinner was served.

Guests from out of town were: Mrs. T. W. Grosse of Elyria, Mrs. Pfeiffer and daughters, Ella and Hattie, of Chillicothe.

Mrs. Grosse will return to her home this evening. For the past few days she has been a guest at the Mannet home on North Main street and at the Linn home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heinz entertained at their Pearl street home yesterday. Misses Inez and Anna Marie Rice and Miss Bell, all of Caledonia.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White accompanied by Miss Marion Burgess returned to their home in Cambridge after spending a few days with Marion relatives.

Robert May of Columbus was a Marion visitor yesterday.

Miss Ethel Finley of Boston, came to Marion Wednesday morning, to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Finley, of Vine street, during the summer months.

Mr. J. Carbaugh was a business visitor in Bellefontaine Wednesday.

Mrs. Stephen Seiderfeld, Mrs. J. C. Wadley and Mrs. Taylor Blow enjoyed a days outing at Cedar Point, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elliott left this morning for Pleasant Hill, where they will spend two weeks at the guests of friends.

L. C. Wogan spent Tuesday in Marietta.

PRETTY SASH OF SOFT SATIN RIBBON

New York, July 1.—This sash, with the bow very high, in a perpendicular line, is of soft satin ribbon. These high bowed sashes are called geisha sashes. Japanese women tie their sashes so, and the bow has very various significances, according to the manner in which it is adjusted. This bow is clamped by a jeweled ornament instead of being tied. The cap is one of the dainty lace affairs that are so smart for afternoon and evening wear.

Mr. Joseph Pohlman spent Tuesday in Columbus.

Miss Nancy Lawla was a visitor in Columbus Wednesday.

J. W. Creenan spent Tuesday in Columbus.

William Virden has returned to Lisbon, Ohio, after spending several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virden, on St. James street.

Miss Laura Campbell spent Tuesday with Gallion friends.

Misses Edith Ochs and Margaret Worley were entertained by Bucyrus friends yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips and Miss Gertrude Craig are spending a week at Lewistown reservoir, near Bellefontaine.

Lloyd Courtney, of Findlay, is in Marion visiting his brother, Edward Courtney.

Miss Grace McBride will arrive this evening from Omaha, Nebraska, to visit her cousin, Miss Eloise Edwards, at her home on East Church street.

Misses Lena and Florence Hay, of Olney avenue, were guests of Columbus friends over the fourth.

Charles Mouser and Patrick English spent Tuesday at Lewistown reservoir near Bellefontaine.

Misses Mabel O'Brien and Edith Rumor have returned to their homes in this city after spending a few days at Toledo.

Mrs. J. H. O'Brien has returned to her home on Olney avenue after a week's visit in Lakue.

Miss Jennie Collier is spending a week with her parents in Springfield.

Ed Powers and Harley Lyons have returned from their ranch in Canada in the valley of the Saskatchewan. They will remain three weeks here.

Miss Pauline Cahill, of Marion, spent the fourth in Columbus.

Edward Welch and Roy Traverser are spending a few days with friends at Prospect, London and Columbus.

Mrs. Harris' home was prettily decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting and cut flowers. Intimate family conversation marked the day as a delightful one and an elegant lunch and dinner were served by the hostess.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stewart of Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. David Petry of Bucyrus, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McHenry of Bucyrus, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Petry of Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. George King will entertain at a garden party next Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock for their son, Ray, at Elwood. A large number of invitations have been issued.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Linn entertained a number of their relatives yesterday at their beautiful country home three miles north of town. The guests decorated the day chatting on the lawn and at noon an elegant dinner was served.

Guests from out of town were: Mrs. T. W. Grosse of Elyria, Mrs. Pfeiffer and daughters, Ella and Hattie, of Chillicothe.

Mrs. Grosse will return to her home this evening. For the past few days she has been a guest at the Mannet home on North Main street and at the Linn home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heinz entertained at their Pearl street home yesterday. Misses Inez and Anna Marie Rice and Miss Bell, all of Caledonia.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White accompanied by Miss Marion Burgess returned to their home in Cambridge after spending a few days with Marion relatives.

Robert May of Columbus was a Marion visitor yesterday.

Miss Ethel Finley of Boston, came to Marion Wednesday morning, to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Finley, of Vine street, during the summer months.

Mr. J. Carbaugh was a business visitor in Bellefontaine Wednesday.

Mrs. Stephen Seiderfeld, Mrs. J. C. Wadley and Mrs. Taylor Blow enjoyed a days outing at Cedar Point, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elliott left this morning for Pleasant Hill, where they will spend two weeks at the guests of friends.

L. C. Wogan spent Tuesday in Marietta.

PRETTY SASH OF SOFT SATIN RIBBON

New York, July 1.—This sash, with the bow very high, in a perpendicular line, is of soft satin ribbon. These high bowed sashes are called geisha sashes. Japanese women tie their sashes so, and the bow has very various significances, according to the manner in which it is adjusted. This bow is clamped by a jeweled ornament instead of being tied. The cap is one of the dainty lace affairs that are so smart for afternoon and evening wear.

Mr. Joseph Pohlman spent Tuesday in Columbus.

Miss Nancy Lawla was a visitor in Columbus Wednesday.

J. W. Creenan spent Tuesday in Columbus.

William Virden has returned to Lisbon, Ohio, after spending several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virden, on St. James street.

Miss Laura Campbell spent Tuesday with Gallion friends.

Misses Edith Ochs and Margaret Worley were entertained by Bucyrus friends yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips and Miss Gertrude Craig are spending a week at Lewistown reservoir, near Bellefontaine.

Lloyd Courtney, of Findlay, is in Marion visiting his brother, Edward Courtney.

Miss Grace McBride will arrive this evening from Omaha, Nebraska, to visit her cousin, Miss Eloise Edwards, at her home on East Church street.

Misses Lena and Florence Hay, of Olney avenue, were guests of Columbus friends over the fourth.

Charles Mouser and Patrick English spent Tuesday at Lewistown reservoir near Bellefontaine.

Misses Mabel O'Brien and Edith Rumor have returned to their homes in this city after spending a few days at Toledo.

Mrs. J. H. O'Brien has returned to her home on Olney avenue after a week's visit in Lakue.

Miss Jennie Collier is spending a week with her parents in Springfield.

Ed Powers and Harley Lyons have returned from their ranch in Canada in the valley of the Saskatchewan. They will remain three weeks here.

Miss Pauline Cahill, of Marion, spent the fourth in Columbus.

Edward Welch and Roy Traverser are spending a few days with friends at Prospect, London and Columbus.

Mrs. Harris' home was prettily decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting and cut flowers. Intimate family conversation marked the day as a delightful one and an elegant lunch and dinner were served by the hostess.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stewart of Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. David Petry of Bucyrus, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McHenry of Bucyrus, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Petry of Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. George King will entertain at a garden party next Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock for their son, Ray, at Elwood. A large number of invitations have been issued.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Linn entertained a number of their relatives yesterday at their beautiful country home three miles north of town. The guests decorated the day chatting on the lawn and at noon an elegant dinner was served.

Guests from out of town were: Mrs. T. W. Grosse of Elyria, Mrs. Pfeiffer and daughters, Ella and Hattie, of Chillicothe.

Mrs. Grosse will return to her home this evening. For the past few days she has been a guest at the Mannet home on North Main street and at the Linn home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heinz entertained at their Pearl street home yesterday. Misses Inez and Anna Marie Rice and Miss Bell, all of Caledonia.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White accompanied by Miss Marion Burgess returned to their home in Cambridge after spending a few days with Marion relatives.

Robert May of Columbus was a Marion visitor yesterday.

Miss Eth